RAPID RESPONSE NETWORK SIGN-UP

Take Back Ontario! Join A Rapid Response Network Near You!

Most Ontarians do not support the drastic changes the government is making. Ontarians don't want cuts and privatization. The majority support a $15 minimum wage, education, healthcare, and public services. We want to get organized to stop these cuts, to build a movement powered by people, powered by us.

Labour and communities are launching Rapid Response Networks in cities and towns across Ontario. These networks are made up of people who are committed to making sure local communities can respond when the government's plans will hurt Ontario.

The rapid response teams will put together large and small actions to raise awareness, mobilize to stop potential attacks, and demand local elected officials work for the good of Ontario.

The rapid response teams will also recruit and train new volunteers to join our fight. There are many ways to participate.

When you join a Rapid Response Team, you'll start receiving news and information about meetings and upcoming actions.
