The Honorable Rick Snyder
Governor of Michigan
PO Box 30013
Lansing, MI 48909

Dear Governor Snyder,

As the President of the Village of Empire, I am writing to you to express the concern about Enbridge's Line 5 pipeline located in the Straits of Mackinaw. Representing the Village residents, we urge you to take immediate action to shut down the pipeline.

The water of Lake Michigan is important to the Village of Empire, our locals enjoy the shores and it attract many people to come to are quaint village. It would be a shame if something were to happen to are clean water and wonderful shoreline.

As the Governor of the State of Michigan, you have a duty to ensure the safety and well-being of our Great Lakes and the people now and in the future.

Most sincerely,

Susan A. Carpenter
Village President
