ahmednelmi Nieces, fresh out the vagina!

JUNE 12, 2012

The above Instagram post appeared on Ahmed Nur Said Elmi's account on June 12, 2012.

That's Elmi himself, holding baby Ilwad at the hospital. She was born the day before to his legal wife, Ilhan Omar. Who attested in court that she has had zero contact with Ahmed Elmi since before Ilwad was conceived, let alone born.

On October 20, 2013, Elmi posted the above photos of himself in the hospital following minor surgery.

Clearly, his hospital intake bracelet identifies his date of birth to be April 4, 1985.

In contrast to Omar's attestation of zero contact since 2011, two of Omar's three self-published photos here even appear to show physical contact in 2014:

There are many other examples of consistent social media communication -- comments, likes -- between the two from June 2011 to late 2016.

New Evidence of Repeated Perjury, and a Family Relationship

After originally being exposed in 2016, Rep. Omar deleted evidence from her social media accounts that appeared to show her visiting a man named Ahmed N. Elmi in London in 2015. This was evidence that she had perjured herself by swearing to have never contacted him beyond June 2011. Omar also deleted evidence that showed her contacting him regularly on social media.
