Mark S. Thompson, Court Administrator

This is an EVICTION SUMMONS

On the date and at the time shown above, the judicial officer will decide whether you will have to move or whether you can continue to stay in your home. You must be on time for court.

Note: This hearing will be held before a referee unless a written request for a judge is filed with the court at least one day before the scheduled hearing date.

IF YOU DON'T COME TO COURT

The judicial officer can order you to move immediately; and if you do not move, the sheriff can move you out and put all your belongings into storage. You will then have to pay the storage and moving costs before you can get your belongings back.

YOU HAVE RIGHTS

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to come to court and tell your side of the case. For example,

- If you believe that all or some of the things that your landlord says in the attached papers are wrong, you can tell those things to the judge.
- If you believe that your landlord is trying to evict you because of something you did to protect your rights as a tenant, you can explain that to the judge.
- If the attached papers say that you have not paid rent, and you believe that your apartment is in bad condition and needs repairs, you can tell that to the judge. Bring total rent owed to court hearing.
- You may have other defenses. You should research the law or ask an attorney.
- You may come to court and speak for yourself or you may have a lawyer with you to represent you.

If you want a lawyer, you must get one right away.
