We Who Believe in (Worker) Justice Cannot Rest

On Monday, ONE DC's Right to Income Committee co-sponsored a webinar, "Worker Cooperatives and the Movement for Socialism," with the Claudia Jones School for Political Education. If you missed it, you can watch the webinar here. The program featured panelists Jessica Gordon Nembhard, Richard Wolff, and Camila Piñeiro Harnecker, as well as a performance by the Black Workers Chorus.
The Right to Income Committee is also working on:

- Learning circles to discuss Black labor issues & for co-op education are ongoing at every Right to Income Committee meeting
- Do you have a Black worker story to share? Reach out to JoJo at jmorinvil@onedconline.org to get your story published on the Black Workers Listening sessions website
- D.C. Shared Work Program campaign is planning for upcoming trainings and info sessions. The program allows for employers to keep, or re-hire in the case of COVID, their full-time staff at reduced hours instead of laying workers off. Employees are able to receive unemployment benefits from their state and at the federal level as well as their hourly take-home pay.

The Right to Income Committee meets every other Thursday at 6:30 PM EST. If you are interested in joining, please contact Jokebed at jmorinvil@onedconline.org or Kelly at kiradukunda@onedconline.org.

Building the Movement to Cancel Rent
The Right to Housing Committee is currently working on building up popular awareness and popular will to Cancel the Rent. We are working on a story share project to capture the stories of DC residents -- who they are, why we need to cancel the rent, and how we can organize to make it happen.

Are you a DC resident who has struggled to pay rent during the pandemic? We need you to join the campaign!

NOW HIRING: Homes for All DC Organizer

Homes For All DC (HFA DC) is an emerging regional formation of the national Right to the City (RTTC) Homes For All (HFA) campaign, made up of grassroots, member-led housing justice organizations in the DMV. The mission is to build the capacity of existing DC-based housing justice organizations, and to support the development of new housing justice leaders and organizations. We accomplish this through collective strategy, peer-led support, regional and local tenant assemblies, media & messaging, and collaborative fundraising.

ONE DC is serving as the anchor for this new formation. The HFA DC Organizer is responsible for working with ONE DC member-leaders, leaders in other grassroots organizations, and the Right to the City Alliance to help form HFA DC. Click here for more info and how to apply.
