

ONE LA

One LA-IAF is a network of diverse religious and non-profit institutions across LA County committed to building relational power and exercising that power to strengthen our communities and bring about a more just society by:

- Building strong relationships within and across our communities;
- Equipping our members with leadership and organizing skills; and
- Acting powerfully together on concrete issues facing our communities.

SCEF

The Southern California Education Fund (SCEF) is a training institute in Los Angeles County that provides leadership development and education to member congregations, schools and nonprofits of One LA -IAF.
