

Feasible Ambition: Climate Goals for New Zealand in 2030

Venue: Legislative Council Chamber

Date: Friday, 25 September 2015

Time: 9:00am – 6:00pm

9.00 am	Mihi	Parliament Kaiwhakarite
9.10 am	Opening	“A Cross-Party Consensus on Climate Policy” James Shaw, MP
9.30 am	Keynote	“The Two Key Concepts in Climate Policy” Dr Kennedy Graham, MP
10.00 am	Panel	Dr Adrian Macey , Institute for Governance & Policy Studies, Victoria University of Wellington Catherine Leining , Policy Fellow, Motu Economic and Public Policy Research
10.30 am	Break
11.00 am	Session 1	“Sharing in the Global Carbon Budget” Chair: Prof Jonathan Boston , Professor of Public Policy, Victoria University of Wellington Dr Scott Metcalfe , New Zealand Climate and Health (OraTaiao)
11.30 am	Panel	Sarah Meads , Independent Development Consultant Dr Christian Holz , Climate Equity Reference Project member, University of Ottawa (skype)
12.00 pm	Session 2	Domestic Action: 1. Energy Chair: Prof Ralph Chapman , Director, Graduate Program in Environmental Studies, VUW Prof Ralph Sims , School of Engineering and Advanced Technology, Massey University (skype) Paul Young , GenZero Nadine Dodge , PhD Candidate and Fulbright Scholar, Victoria University of Wellington
1.00 pm	Lunch
2.00 pm	Session 3	Domestic Action: 2. Agriculture Chair: Eugenie Sage, MP Dr Suzi Kerr , Senior Fellow, Motu Economic and Public Policy Research Dr Alison Dewes , Veterinary consultant
3.00 pm	Session 4	Domestic Action: 3. LULUCF Chair: Bryan Smith , Forestry consultant David Rhodes , Chief Executive, NZ Forest Owners Association Prof Euan Mason , Forestry Department, Canterbury University Chris Karamea Insley , Climate Change Policy Adviser to Iwi and Maori
4.00 pm	Break
4.30 pm	Session 5	Cross-Party Understanding Chair: Michael Macaulay , Director, Institute of Governance & Policy Studies, Victoria Univ. National Party Cabinet Minister or MP Dr Megan Woods , MP, Labour Party Dr Kennedy Graham , MP, Green Party Tracey Martin , MP, New Zealand First
5.30 pm	Conclusion	“Where to, from Here?” James Shaw, MP