

It's time to ban the inhumane practice of conversion therapy.

Justin Trudeau has committed time after time to banning conversion therapy, but TWICE has prorogued Parliament before a bill on conversion therapy could be approved by the senate. The Liberals have been dragging their feet on banning conversion therapy, resulting in more children scarred by this harmful practice.

Join Angella MacEwen and the NDP in our call to ban the inhuman practice of conversion therapy.

I support the NDP's call to ban the practice of conversion therapy; enact legislation prohibiting transportation of minors outside of the country for such purposes; and; have conversion therapy included in the Canadian Human Rights Act and the Criminal Code, to protect children from abuse:
