Dear Ms. Lugo:

To nominate candidates to the 2014 General Election the Pacific Green Party must maintain its ballot access by satisfying either of the following requirements at any time between May 21, 2014 and August 6, 2014 as set forth in ORS 248.008(4):

(a) registered party members equal to at least one-half of one percent of the total number of registered voters in this state;

(b)(A) registered party members equal to at least one-tenth of one percent of the total votes cast in the state or electoral district for all candidates for Governor at the most recent election at which a candidate for Governor was elected to a full term;

and

(b)(B) once in a four year period a candidate for United States President or partisan statewide office nominated by the Pacific Green Party must receive at least one percent of the total votes cast for that office.

As of June 27, 2014, the Pacific Green Party has 9,924 active registered members and Seth Woolley, a candidate nominated by the party to the office of Secretary of State at the November 6, 2012, General Election, received 44,235 votes which is in excess of one percent of the total votes cast for that office.

Therefore, in accordance with ORS 248.008(4)(b), the Pacific Green Party is eligible to nominate candidates for the 2014 General Election.

Sincerely,

Summer Davis
