

URBS AETERNA

SPRING BREAK TRIP TO ITALY, 2020

HARVARD-WESTLAKE SCHOOL

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

THE PAIDEIA INSTITUTE

ABOUT THE PAIDEIA INSTITUTE

The Paideia Institute for Humanistic Study, Inc. is a non-profit organization whose mission is to promote the study of the classical humanities through innovative, experienced-based educational programming in the U.S. and abroad. Founded in 2010, the Institute currently attracts talented and motivated students across America to its Living Latin and Greek summer programs. Additionally, the Institute partners with high schools and universities to design customized educational experiences in Italy, Greece, and elsewhere in Western Europe. Paideia staff members all have advanced degrees in Classics or related fields and extensive experience in the countries where we operate.

The Paideia Institute is committed to providing American students with authentic experiences abroad. We strive to surpass the ordinary study-abroad experience and put students into supervised but direct contact with the cultures they visit, both ancient and modern. The goal of all of our programs is to provide experiences that integrate history, literature, and language with the students' direct experience of foreign cultures. Paideia students can be found declaiming Cicero in the Roman Forum or reading Pliny the Younger in the ruins of Pompeii. We take a personal interest in every student we teach and are committed to showing them how a subtle appreciation of the humanities can make their lives fuller and richer.

PROGRAM STAFF

This full support package includes 1 Paideia Teaching Assistant (TBD) who will accompany your group for the duration of the program. Paideia Teaching Assistants are trained classicists who speak fluent Italian and have extensive experience living and teaching in Italy. Your Paideia TA will manage all of the logistics of your trip so you can concentrate on teaching. However, your TA can also help you teach on site, assist you when preparing your lessons, and help you deal with emergencies, should they arise.

In addition to your TA, one of the Institute's directors will be assigned to your group and will be on call 24/7 in case of emergencies, and will visit periodically throughout the program to check in and participate.

DIRECTORS

ERIC HEWETT is a long-time resident of Rome, where he teaches Latin and Italian at the university level. For the past five years he has also worked as a private docent for Context Travel. Eric has a Ph.D. in Medieval Philosophy from the University of Salerno and an M.A. in Patristic Sciences from the Augustinian Pontifical University in Rome.

Since 2011, Eric has managed the European operations of the Paideia Institute and has taught and directed its summer programs.

JASON PEDICONE is the Paideia Institute's co-founder and Director of U.S. Operations. He has a Ph.D. in Classics from Princeton University. He has taught Latin and Greek at the university level in the U.S. and Europe.

Jason has years of experience leading student trips to Italy. Since 2011, he has taught and directed Paideia's summer programs and has worked to coordinate trips abroad for American high schools and universities.

PAIDEIA INSTITUTE TEACHING ASSISTANTS

KIM GILMORE received her A.B. in Classics and Education from Bowdoin College in 2017. She spent the following year contributing to a research project examining pedagogical strategies to cultivate equity in early education and completing the Bowdoin Teacher Scholars program, through which she received Latin teaching licensure. In 2018, she was awarded a Fulbright to Colombia where she taught English to university students and established an academic program for Venezuelan child refugees. In the past, Kim has volunteered as an Aequora site coordinator and teacher at The Achieve Program, a free summer program for Boston Public School students. A Boston native, she hopes to return to her hometown as a Latin teacher and expand access to the study of the ancient world within the Boston Public Schools system.

EVAN HOUSE is a recent graduate of the University of Georgia, where he earned an AB in History, Classics, and Latin. An alumnus of Paideia's 2018 Summer internship program, Evan worked with the development team to help jump-start what would become Paideia's Nexus initiative. Evan loves all things ancient, and he hopes to one day be a professor of ancient history. He is very excited to be back in Rome representing Paideia once again.

PHOEBE LAKIN graduated from Harvard College in 2018 with an A.B. in Classical Languages and Literature, and in 2019 received an MPhil in Classics from the University of Cambridge. So far, her research has explored the relationship between humans and the natural world in Latin and Greek pastoral and didactic poetry. She is also interested in novels and gardens of all ages. In her spare time, Phoebe enjoys hiking, crossword puzzles, and studying modern languages.

PAIDEIA INSTITUTE TEACHING ASSISTANTS

MAGGIE NOLTING is a 2019 graduate of Smith College with a B.A. in Classical Languages and Literature. She is an alumna of the Living Latin in Rome High School program as well as the Summer Internship in Rome. Her interests include political narratives and histories. In her free time, she can be found wandering the Smithsonian Museums in DC.

DANIEL RUPRECHT received his B.A. in Classics and History from Stanford University in 2017 and then an M.A. in Classics from the University of Arizona in 2019, on the Classical Philology track. His M.A. thesis focused on representations of aischune (shame/guilt/dishonor) in Menander's comedies (but he promises he likes to read Latin plays too). He is primarily interested in reception and translation studies, and, in his free time, he writes fiction and poetry.

GRIFFIN SMITH-NICHOLS is a graduate of Cornell University with a B.A. in Latin and the College Scholar Program, and wrote a thesis for the latter on the Old Saxon Heliand poem, a 6,000 line alliterative verse epic retelling of the New Testament. He additionally received minors in German, religious studies, and medieval studies, and some of his scholarly passions include Greek and Latin Patristics, Biblical Hebrew, and Anglo-Saxon England. During his time as a student, he helped run Cornell's undergraduate society for medieval scholarship, played in performances of Ancient Greek tragedy, and participated in reading groups in Latin and Old Norse. He is an alumnus of the 2017 Living Greek in Greece program.

For a more complete list of Paideia TA's, visit our website.

PROGRAM DETAILS

We are delighted that Harvard-Westlake School is partnering with the Paideia Institute for its Spring Break Trip in 2020. This program includes the following:

Transportation

- ▶ Flights to and from Italy
- ▶ Public transportation passes for the duration of the trip
- ▶ Private coach transportation between cities

Accommodation

- ▶ Housing in monasteries or guesthouses in the city center
- ▶ Double or triple rooms for students
- ▶ Private single rooms for chaperones

Food

- ▶ Breakfast buffet every morning
- ▶ Dinner every night at one of our favorite restaurants

Guiding, Chaperoning and Support

- ▶ Curriculum designed to create an itinerary best suited to the academic interests of the group
- ▶ A Paideia Assistant: an Italian-speaking graduate student in Classics who stays with the group to provide assistance and logistical support for the entire trip
- ▶ Entrance tickets to all sites and museums
- ▶ Italian cell phones for all teachers and chaperones

Not Included

- ▶ Extra baggage costs
- ▶ Lunch
- ▶ Gelato, snacks, souvenirs

ITINERARY

Friday, April 3 (In Transit)

Flight out of USA

Saturday, April 4 (Arrival Day)

Arrival Rome, Transfer Florence; Walking Tour (time permitting)
(sleep Florence)

Sunday, April 5

AM - Uffizi
PM - Accademia
(sleep Florence)

Monday, April 6

AM - Duomo
PM - Santa Croce, Santa Maria Novella (or tbd)
(sleep Florence)

Tuesday, April 7

AM - Transfer Venice
PM - Walking Tour of Venice
(sleep Venice)

Wednesday, April 8

Day Trip to Verona
(sleep Venice)

Thursday, April 9

Day Trip to Aquileia
(sleep Venice)

Friday, April 10

AM - San Marco, group lunch
PM - Doge's Palace, transfer airport for evening flight to Rome
(sleep Rome, near airport)

Saturday, April 11 (Departure Day)

Transfer to Airport, Flight to USA