

URBS AETERNA J-TERM TRIP TO ITALY, 2017

Lafayette College

in partnership with

The Paideia Institute

ABOUT THE PAIDEIA INSTITUTE

The Paideia Institute for Humanistic Study, Inc. is a non-profit organization whose mission is to promote the study of the classical humanities through innovative, experienced-based educational programming in the U.S. and abroad. Founded in 2010, the Institute currently attracts talented and motivated students across America to its Living Latin and Greek summer programs. Additionally, the Institute partners with high schools and universities to design customized educational experiences in Italy, Greece, and elsewhere in Western Europe. Paideia staff members all have advanced degrees in Classics or related fields and extensive experience in the countries where we operate.

The Paideia Institute is committed to providing American students with authentic experiences abroad. We strive to surpass the ordinary study-abroad experience and put students into supervised but direct contact with the cultures they visit, both ancient and modern. The goal of all of our programs is to provide experiences that integrate history, literature, and language with the students' direct experience of foreign cultures. Paideia students can be found declaiming Cicero in the Roman Forum or reading Pliny the Younger in the ruins of Pompeii. We take a personal interest in every student we teach and are committed to showing them how a subtle appreciation of the humanities can make their lives fuller and richer.

PROGRAM STAFF

This full support package includes 1 Director and 1 Paideia Teaching Assistant (TBD) who will accompany your group for the duration of the program. Paideia Teaching Assistants are trained classicists who speak fluent German and Italian and have extensive experience living and teaching in Germany and Italy. Your Paideia TA will manage all of the logistics of your trip so you can concentrate on teaching. However, your TA can also help you teach on site, assist you when preparing your lessons, and help you deal with emergencies, should they arise. If you think you can manage without an assistant, you may want to consider our light support package.

In addition to your TA, one of the Institute's directors will be assigned to your group and will be on call 24/7 in case of emergencies, and will visit periodically throughout the program to check in and participate.

DIRECTORS

ERIC HEWETT is a long-time resident of Rome, where he teaches Latin and Italian at the university level. For the past five years he has also worked as a private docent for Context Travel. Eric has a Ph.D. in Medieval Philosophy from the University of Salerno and an M.A. in Patristic Sciences from the Augustinian Pontifical University in Rome.

Since 2011, Eric has managed the European operations of the Paideia Institute and has taught and directed its summer programs.

JASON PEDICONE is the Paideia Institute's co-founder and Director of U.S. Operations. He has a Ph.D. in Classics from Princeton University. He has taught Latin and Greek at the university level in the U.S. and Europe.

Jason has years of experience leading student trips to Italy. Since 2011, he has taught and directed Paideia's summer programs and has worked to coordinate trips abroad for American high schools and universities.

PAIDEIA INSTITUTE TEACHING ASSISTANTS

LOGAN WREN has a B.A. in Classical Studies from Boston College, with interests in Latin and Greek prosody, Renaissance humanistic literature, and modern reception of classical literature. His senior thesis investigated a group of pen drawings in a manuscript of Italian humanist Giovanni Marchanova. As an undergraduate, he helped develop a museum exhibit, featuring Roman artifacts of the Late Antique. He is an alumnus of Living Latin in Rome 2014 and Living Latin in Paris 2014. Logan is one of Paideia's Rome Fellows for 2015-16.

JOSEPH CONLON has a B.A. in Classics from Reed College and is now a Ph.D. student at Princeton University. He is currently a visiting student at Ludwig Maximilians University in Munich. Joe has studied many languages, including Classical Chinese, Japanese, Old Norse, and Old English. For his dissertation, he is writing a commentary on a play by Plautus. He is one of Paideia's teachers for Living Latin in Rome (High School).

EMMA SCHMIDT has a B.A. in Classics from Yale University, where she wrote a thesis on Vitruvius's De Architectura and its influence on later architectural theorists. She is interested in investigating the intersection of Classics and Architecture, and enjoys Archaeology too. She spent each of her summers during college in Rome working on an archaeological dig, to participating in Living Latin in Rome, and doing independent research. She has also found the best gelato spots in Rome! Emma is one of Paideia's Rome Fellows for 2015-16.

JIM MCGLONE is an alumnus of Living Latin in Rome 2014. He has a BA from Harvard in History and a secondary focus in Classics. He wrote his senior thesis on the political thought of St. Augustine. Most of his great loves are family affairs, from the Irish music he likes to play with his five siblings to the fondness for Newman, Belloc, Chesterton, and all things medieval that he likes to share with his grandfather over a cup of tea. He is one of Paideia's Rome Fellows for 2015-16.
