

Creating a Character Profile

In this activity, you are going to choose a character from the text you have been studying and explore them in greater depth – this should help you to better understand the moral and message of the story.

Choose a part of the story in which something tense, dramatic or exciting happens and complete the tasks below. You can do this several times for one character or explore a variety of characters within the story.

Using evidence from the text, draw a picture of your character in the box below.
Try to make your drawing as accurate as possible.

What are the character's motivations? How do you know? Write some examples here:

What are your character's emotions? How do you know? Write some examples here:

What are your character's actions? How do you know? Write some examples here: