

WHITE BRITONS TO BE A MINORITY

by the 2060s - or SOONER

White Britons are already a minority in London and according to Oxford Professor and population expert David Coleman, due to falling white birth rates and mass immigration, White Britons will be a minority in Britain as a whole by the 2060s.

White Britons are already a minority in London, white Britons make up just 66% of pupils at primary schools in England and white British births make up just 59% of births in England - it is clear that if these trends continue white people will become a minority in Britain.

Britain's population has expanded rapidly over the past few decades, and the number of migrants coming into Britain has increased under the Conservative government. In fact, in 2019, over 715,000 people entered Britain. That's enough people to fill a city similar in size to Leeds! Of those migrants, 437,000 came from non-EU countries.

This rapid expansion of the migrant population not only brings white Britons ever closer to becoming a minority, but it also has a number of negative effects on our everyday lives.

Britons are left stuck in traffic every morning as our roads are grid locked meaning it takes even longer to get to work. Commuters are left standing on buses and trains as public transport cannot cope with the rising population. Doctor's surgeries are overcrowded with people who cannot speak English. The NHS is crippled by health tourists meaning that British patients must wait even longer for an operation. Social housing waiting lists mean young people often have to wait years for a council house or face the prospect of paying extortionate rents as our beautiful countryside is destroyed in the race to build new houses. But as the cost of living rises, jobs disappear and mass immigration forces wages down.

Immigration is not enriching Britain - it is making life worse for the vast majority of people. But it isn't just about waiting lists and rising prices - mass immigration has an effect on our culture, our ways of life and even our safety. If you want to see an end to mass immigration - join like minded Patriotic people and help make a difference.
