Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF)

Program Overview

How does this work?

- You have federal direct loans
- You make 120 eligible payments (10 years)
- Remaining principle and interest is forgiven

How do I know if I am eligible?

- Work in public service
  - All educators are eligible, other professions include: government organizations, emergency services, public health, and 501(c)(3) non-profit organizations.
- For educators, you must average 30 hours a week, 8 months of the year.
- Make 120 payments
  - Do not need to be consecutive—must not be in default, but they can be in deferment or forbearance
  - Must be on time—within 15 days of the due date
  - Eligible payments are retroactive to October 1, 2007—loans taken out before 2007 are still eligible!
  - Earliest date of forgiveness is October 1, 2017
- Have federal direct loans
  - Check your loan type at the by logging into the National Student Loan Data System found here: https://www.nslds.ed.gov/npas/index.htm
  - Eligible loans will have “direct” in their title.
  - You can consolidate ineligible Federal Family Education Loans (FFEL) into eligible direct loans.
- Be enrolled in a qualified income driven repayment plan
