3. Invitations will be extended promptly to candidates in the races to be considered for recommendations, and will also be sent a pre-interview questionnaire in targeted races determined by the PAT PAC Board, except where an early recommendation has already been made. The invitations will clearly state that a face-to-face interview is required to be considered for recommendation. Candidates will be encouraged to send campaign materials prior to the interviews. A separate questionnaire prepared by OEA attorneys for judges may be included with the invitation.
