The Portland Association of Teachers Political Action Committee (PAT PAC) is proud to announce its endorsements for candidates and ballot measures the November 2018 general election. The board considers candidates’ positions on public education, commitment to union values, their alignment to PAT strategic goals including racial equity, and their electability.

CANDIDATES

Oregon Governor
Kate Brown

Portland City Commissioner
Jo Ann Hardesty

Metro Council
Christine Lewis

Oregon House of Representatives
- HD 33: Mitch Greenlick
- HD 36: Jennifer Williamson
- HD 41: Karin Power
- HD 42: Rob Nosse
- HD 43: Tawna Sanchez
- HD 44: Tina Kotek
- HD 45: Barbara Smith Warner
- HD 46: Alissa Keny-Guyer

The PAT PAC is a voluntary, nonprofit, unincorporated association of individual educators and others and is not affiliated with any political party. PAT PAC’s purpose is to elect to office candidates interested in the development of a better educational system in Oregon and Portland Public Schools. PAT PAC decisions are made by its Board of Directors, which include the PAT President, the Legislative Committee Chair, PAT’s OEA PIE Representative, PAT’s OEA Legislative Advisory Council representative, and six at-large directors elected by the PAT PAC contributors. PAT PAC funds come from voluntary contributions, not from union dues.
BALLOT MEASURES

YES Portland: 26-201
Amends city code to require a 1% revenue surcharge on retail corporations to fund clean energy jobs and initiatives which disproportionately impact people of color.

YES Metro: 26-199
A regional bond to fund affordable housing for low-income families, seniors, veterans and people with disabilities.

YES Measure 102
Allows local governments to issue bonds to build affordable housing.

NO Measure 103
Adds misleading and permanent tax loophole for specific businesses into Oregon’s constitution.

NO Measure 104
Needlessly expands Oregon’s supermajority requirement, making it more difficult to eliminate wasteful loopholes and rein in run-away tax breaks.

NO Measure 105
Repeals Oregon’s anti-racial profiling law, passed with near-unanimous support more than 30 years ago.

NO Measure 106
Back-door ban on abortion that takes away critical access to care for vulnerable Oregonians, including more than 75,000 public employees.

The PAT PAC is a voluntary, nonprofit, unincorporated association of individual educators and others and is not affiliated with any political party. PAT PAC’s purpose is to elect to office candidates interested in the development of a better educational system in Oregon and Portland Public Schools. PAT PAC decisions are made by its Board of Directors, which include the PAT President, the Legislative Committee Chair, PAT’s OEA PIE Representative, PAT’s OEA Legislative Advisory Council representative, and six at-large directors elected by the PAT PAC contributors. PAT PAC funds come from voluntary contributions, not from union dues.