

It's time! And you can make a difference.

There are several ways you can advocate for students and schools.

Take the pledge and lend your name to the Invest in Oregon campaign to improve school funding for kids in our state. Go to <https://www.investoregon.org/>, scroll down the page, and click on the "Take the Pledge" button

Send an email to your lawmakers telling them why you support the Student Success Act

(At this link, you simply put in your address and the platform automatically finds your legislators and provides an easy form with a suggested draft message for you to personalize)

Email to Joint Committee on Student Success, thank them for their work, and let them know you support the Student Success Act: jcss.exhitits@oregonlegislature.gov

Call your individual State Representative and State Senator and ask to schedule a time for a phone call to tell them why this issue matters to you, your kids and your community. To find the names and phone numbers of your legislators, go to <http://bit.ly/LegDistLook-up> and enter your address.

Sign up for the May 8 Day of action! Rally with parents, teachers and other allies in calling on lawmakers to invest in students and schools. Learn more and register at: <https://www.may8forstudents.org/>
