Who can apply?
Parents or guardians can apply to change the record of their child’s sex on the child’s birth certificate. You can apply if the child:
- Is under 18 years
- Was born in Victoria, Australia
- Has not changed their record of sex in the last 12 months.

Consent of parents
In most cases, both parents named on the child’s birth certificate must apply. One parent can apply if:
- They are the only parent named on the child’s birth certificate
- The other parent has died
- They have a court order approving the change.

How to complete this application
1. Fill out PARTS 1–4
2. Fill out Part 5 with the child (PART 5)
3. Sign the statutory declaration in front of an authorised witness (PARTS 6–7)
4. Get an authorised person to complete the supporting statement (PART 8)
   Not required if you can attach a County Court order stating that the change is in the child’s best interests
5. Attach required documents
   See PART 9 for a list of documents you need. Any copies of original documents must be certified (see next section How to certify documents)
6. Pay the relevant fees (PART 11)
7. Lodge your application
   See the back of this form for details.

How to certify documents
If you need to provide copies of documents, you must get them certified. This proves they are true copies of the original.
- To certify documents, take both original documents and a photocopy to someone authorised to certify the copies. This includes legal practitioners, pharmacists, teachers, medical practitioners and Justices of the Peace.

For a full list of authorised certifiers, see justice.vic.gov.au/certifiedcopies. You can also take your original document to a Justice Service Centre for certification http://www.justice.vic.gov.au/service-locations.

If you are interstate, any Justice of the Peace can certify documents.

Translated documents
If your documents are not in English, you must also attach a certified translation. The translator must be accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters.

How long will it take?
Our processing times start from when we receive your application with all required documents. See https://www.bdm.vic.gov.au/certificate-turnaround-times for turnaround times.

PART 4: CHILD’S NEW RECORD OF SEX

What does the child want their new record of sex to be?

BDM accepts most sex descriptors. However, there are some the law doesn’t allow. This may include descriptors that are:

- Obscene or offensive
- Impractical (for example, it is too long or contains symbols)
- Restricted for other reasons (for example, it is chosen for an improper purpose).

PART 5: CHILD’S CONSENT

If the child is 12 years or older, please ask the child to consent to this application by signing below. Children under 12 can also choose to sign below.

PART 8: SUPPORTING STATEMENT

You do not need a supporting statement if you are attaching a County Court order stating that the change is in the child’s best interests.

To be completed by a person authorised to make a supporting statement.

Your details
To be an authorised person, you must be one of the following:
☐ I am an adult who has known the child for at least 12 months (who is not their parent or guardian)
☐ I am a doctor
☐ I am a psychologist

Registration number (if doctor or psychologist)

Family name (surname)

Given name (first name)

Phone number

Email address

Date of birth

Is this change in the child’s best interests?
Consider the child’s views, autonomy, identity, well-being, and rights to health and education in assessing their best interests.

In my opinion, the change of the child’s record of sex is in the child’s best interests.
☐ Yes
☐ No

Can the child consent?
Complete this question if the child is under the age of 16

Do you think the child:
- Understands what it means to change the record of sex on their birth certificate and how it will affect them? You may be able to gauge the child’s understanding by asking the child to explain in their language (be it verbal or other) what it means to have the record of sex on their birth certificate changed and its impact on them
- Can communicate consent? The child should be able to communicate their decision and the reasons for their decision.

Children will understand and communicate their decision in different ways.

In my opinion, the child has the capacity to consent to the change of their record of sex.
☐ Yes
☐ No

Why do you support the child changing their record of sex?
Explain briefly why you support this application. You can attach supporting documents.

PART 9: DOCUMENTS YOU NEED

If applying in person: Bring original documents.

If mailing your application: Attach photocopies certified by an authorised certifier (see front of this form for details).

Return the child’s birth certificate

- Legal Victorian birth certificate (original)
- If you are unable to return the legal original birth certificate: A statutory declaration stating the reason

You MUST return all original legal Victorian birth certificates by attaching them to this application. A record of sex won’t be changed, unless you return all original certificates. If you are unable to return the originals, please attach a statutory declaration, stating the reason.

See https://www.bdm.vic.gov.au/unable-to-return-certificate if you are unable to return a certificate.

Additional documents (if required):

- If the child is detained in a Youth Justice Facility: Approval from the Secretary of the Department of Justice and Community Safety
- If a guardian is applying: Permanent care order or other court order
- If parent 2 has died: A death certificate (if the death was outside Victoria)
- If parent 2 does not consent (and is on the child’s birth certificate): A court order supporting the change
- If the supporting statement has not been completed: a County Court order stating that the change is in the child’s best interests.

Proof of identity for each Parent/Guardian:

Each parent/guardian must provide:

- 2 documents from List 1 below

OR

- Any 3 documents from the lists below. Each document must be from a different list.
