Dear «first»,

Think about what's happened in North Carolina over the past four years:

- Several billion dollars in tax relief
- Over 250,000 new jobs, and an unemployment rate nearly cut in half
- Balanced state budgets and revenue surpluses
- Five major regulatory reform measures
- Major economic development reforms to keep us competitive in attracting new jobs
- Pay raises for teachers and more state investment in public schools

The list goes on. But none of this happened by accident. It happened because we sent the right people to Raleigh to reform state government and pass pro-business policies. And in 2016 and beyond, it'll be even more critical that we continue sending the sending the right folks to represent us in the state legislature.

That's why we're asking you to join us as a host for a reception at Summerfield Farms (3203 Pleasant Ridge Road, Summerfield, North Carolina) on Tuesday, November 17th at 6:00 pm to support Senator Phil Berger, the leader of the North Carolina Senate, and hear from him about the important issues facing our state.

If you don't know Phil, here are a few things you need to know – a few reasons we support him: Phil is one of those rare politicians who's in this for the right reasons. He isn't afraid to do what he thinks is right for North Carolina, regardless of the political consequences. He's led the fight on all the accomplishments we listed above. He's quick to listen to feedback and consider opposing points of view, and he's honest. We need more leaders like that in Raleigh.

As the leader of the Senate, Phil is the primary fundraiser for Republican Senate candidates. The money he raises supports his own campaign, but also competitive legislative races across the state. It's his job to keep the Senate in Republican hands. We're all donating $2,500 or more (up to $5,100) to Phil's campaign. I hope you'll consider matching our contributions of at least $2,500 to join us at a private roundtable prior to the event, or at least attend the reception with a contribution of $1,000, $500, or $250. Just RSVP with the enclosed envelope by October 30th.

Thanks for considering supporting Senator Berger.
