For the statement of the Churches of Jerusalem.

Laurie Cardoza-Moore, President of Proclaiming Justice to The Nations and Special Envoy to the UN for the World Council of Independent Christian Churches (WCICC), condemns the recent anti-Semitic statements made by the leadership of the Jerusalem churches:

“These so-called ‘Heads of Churches in Jerusalem’ are the false prophets Matthew warned us about and Yeshua labeled ‘workers of iniquity’. Their words are in direct violation of the Torah, the prophets, the writings and the New Testament. This should serve as a warning to anyone who is a follower of the Jewish messiah in Jerusalem and around the world – flee from these false prophets and their churches. Not only are they leading the sheep astray, but they are inciting violence against their Jewish brethren. Had they read their Bibles instead of promoting heresy, they would have discovered that the Temple Mount (not Al Aksa) is the holiest place on earth according to God, Judaism and Christianity. We are warned in Deuteronomy 27:17; ‘Accursed is the one who moves the boundary of his fellow’.

These church leaders are promoting heresy in direct violation of God’s commandments and the most vile form of anti-Semitic revisionist history and replacement theology. Not only have they rejected God’s eternal covenant with our Jewish brethren, but they have replaced Christianity entirely with a radical Islamic ideology. These leaders were either forced at gun point to make this heretical claim, or they have replaced their brand of Christianity with Islam. In closing, I’m reminded of the words of Yeshua in Matthew 7:20-23, ‘Therefore, by their fruits you will know them. It will not be that just anyone who says to me ‘My master, my master!’ Will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, ‘My master, my master! By your name, have we not prophesied? And by your name have we cast out demons? And by your name have we done many miracles? And then I (Yeshua) will profess to them that from everlasting, I have not known you. Depart from me, you workers of iniquity!’”
