

Licensure for CPMs: State Chart

34 States Regulate CPMs (Year Law Enacted/ Rules in Some States)	1 State Legalized CPMs by Statute (Year Law Enacted)	35 States and Years of CPM Regulation or Legalization (in Chronological Order)	5 States have Active CPM Bill in Legislative Process	6 States are Planning for CPM Legislation	4 States are Legislatively Inactive at Present
AK (1999)	MO (2007)	1 SC (1976)	CT	NC	GU*
AL (2017)		2 AZ (1978)	DC*	NE	KS
AZ (1978)		3 NM (1978)	GA	NV	MS
AR (1983)		4 DE (1978)	IA	OH	ND
CA (1993)		5 NH (1979)	IL	OK	VI*
CO (1993)		6 AR (1983)	MA	PA	WV
DE (1978)		7 TX (1983)		PR*
FL (1995)		8 LA (1985)
HI (2019)		9 WA (1991)
ID (2009)		10 MT (1991)
IN (2013)		11 NY (1992)
KY (2019)		12 CO (1993)
LA (1985)		13 CA (1993)
MD (2015)		14 OR (1993)
ME (2016)		15 FL (1995)
MI (2016)		16 AK (1999)
MN (1999)		17 MN (1999)
MT (1991)		18 VT (2000)
NH (1979)		19 TN (2000)
NJ (2002)		20 NJ (2002)
NM (1978)		21 UT (2005)
NY (1992)		22 VA (2005)
OR (1993)		23 WI (2006)
RI (2014)		24 MO (2007)
SC (1976)		25 ID (2009)
SD (2017)		26 WY (2010)
TN (2000)		27 IN (2013)
TX (1983)		28 RI (2014)
UT (2005)		29 MD (2015)
VT (2000)		30 ME (2016)
VA (2005)		31 MI (2016)
WA (1991)		32 SD (2017)
WI (2006)		33 AL (2017)
WY (2010)		34 KY (2019)
		35 HI (2019)

Note:* Licensure status for the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and Guam is listed here, but not counted in state totals.

Note:* New York CPMs would qualify for licenses if the state midwifery board had properly implemented the licensing statute.

The North American Registry of Midwives introduced the CPM credential in 1994.

CPM
Certified Professional Midwife
Nationally accredited, NARM sets the standards for the competency-based CPM credential.

The Big PUSH For Midwives
Certified Professional Midwives NOW