

QUEENSLAND
COMMUNITY ALLIANCE

Assembly Officer – role description

The Queensland Community Alliance is looking for leaders within our partner organisations who are prepared to learn the valuable skill of relational organising. Be part of creating an awesome Founding Assembly!

As an Assembly Officer, you will be supported to learn and practise:

1. How to use your own stories to build relationships that lead to action.
2. How to find in others their strength and passion.
3. How to organise attendance at events with real participation, where people come ready to act because they share a common vision.
4. The skills of running table talks to create real shared energy and commitment

Assembly Officers will receive:

1. Personal training and mentoring from professional relational organisers – 2 individual sessions and three group training nights between April and August
2. Support and recognition from your organisation as an emerging leader and ambassador to membership for the organisation's wider mission.
3. The opportunity to run a 1600+ Founding Assembly that will start changing politics in Queensland.

Commitment required!

- Commit to turnout at least 10 people to August Founding Assembly through 30 relational contacts. These will include 3 table talks and 15 one-on-ones with separate individuals,
- Attend three Assembly Team training sessions, one in April, one in June, and a final one in July. These meetings will be held in Logan, Ipswich, Brisbane North and Brisbane South
- At least one-on-one with an Alliance Organiser in May/June, and in June/July with your Alliance Leader
