FOR GOVERNOR

REV UP MICHIGAN!

economy | rights | liberty

Imagine a state where it isn't politics as usual, where people love and care for their neighbors... where crime drops significantly... where life is respected... where truth is pursued... and where each person is embraced and recognized. Imagine people from around the state desiring to stay to continue to raise their families, start a new business, enjoy a retirement hobby, or benefit from a booming economy. This is the Michigan I imagine.

Ralph Rebandt

FOR GOVERNOR

Ralph Rebandt was born and raised in Woodhaven, and is a lifelong Michigan resident. Both of his parents were employed by Ford Motor Company, and his mother was the Woodhaven City Clerk for many years. Ralph grew up on his grandfather's farm with his parents and sister. There, he learned the value of hard work, and also remembers the many values his parents instilled in him from a very young age. He learned to work hard, help those around him, and the importance of God, family, and country.

At a very young age, Ralph knew that he was called to help serve and care for those around him. Since 1987, Ralph has served as the lead pastor for Oakland Hills Community Church in Farmington Hills. He is the active chaplain for many state and local police organizations, including the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police and the SE Michigan Chiefs of Police. Ralph is actively involved in the community and serves on the board of the Farmington Hills Crime Prevention Advisory Committee, he is a local member of the Farmington Hills S.A.F.E. organization which is dedicated to suicide awareness, and is a member of Farmington Families in Action. On a national and state level, he is a member of the Board of Governors for the Council of National Policy in Washington, DC and has served as Religious Advisor on Governor Engeler's Sex and Drugs Education Task Force.

Ralph has spent a career helping people build, and shape, and even rebuild their lives. Before becoming a pastor, he helped build houses in the construction business, fabricate metal parts working on a lathe, rebuild cars in a collision shop, and worked for the United Parcel Service. Ralph has always taken a leadership role in whatever he was involved with in order to help those around him. He was a member of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, the Michigan Laborers Union, and the United Steelworkers.

Ralph married his high school sweetheart, Carol, in 1976 and they have four grown children and sixteen grandchildren. Ralph enjoys reading, hunting, restoring automobiles and classic Honda Mini Trails, and works on various construction and woodworking projects. Most of all he enjoys spending time with his wife, children and grandchildren. Ralph and Carol reside in Oakland County, Michigan.
