A Petition to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario – End the State of Emergency

WHEREAS the State of Emergency in Ontario has resulted in the highest unemployment rates in generations;

AND WHEREAS countless small and medium-sized business have been forced to close or have gone bankrupt as a result of the State of Emergency;

AND WHEREAS the economic devastation of the closure is resulting in more damage than is being prevented;

AND WHEREAS the State of Emergency contravenes the rights and freedoms of the people as enshrined in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms;

WE the undersigned petition the Legislative Assembly of Ontario as follows:

That the State of Emergency in Ontario be ended and business be allowed to open while taking the necessary health precautions to allow for a full economic recovery to ensure a healthy, prosperous Ontario.
