Reef Check Australia – Board Members (Pro Bono)

Reef Check Australia (RCA) invites nominations from skilled individuals with an interest in marine conservation through citizen science and community education. We are looking for active board members to provide guidance and leadership to the organisation. This is a voluntary position, with vacancies available for a 3-year renewable term.

RCA is an innovative NFP public company which engages the community in hands-on education and research. We believe in protecting reefs and oceans by empowering people. We work collaboratively with an extensive network of partners to train and coordinate volunteers to take part in globally-standardised Reef Check reef health surveys; provide educational materials for schools and communities; and facilitate hands-on community events and coastal clean-up projects.

The Board is collectively responsible for ensuring that the organisation is performing well, is solvent, and is complying with all its legal, financial, and ethical obligations.

Your passion for working with a non-profit and corporate organisations, marine conservation, community engagement and/or well-honed governance skills can help to ensure RCA continues its rich history of supporting healthy and sustainable coral reefs well into the future.

We currently have several vacancies for volunteer Board members and would particularly like to hear from people with the following skills, abilities or experience:

- Financial management
- Marine science and monitoring
- Dive industry and tourism experience
- Indigenous engagement

Previous Board experience would be preferred, but is not essential.
