

Victorian FLASHMOB to end Abortion Shame

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
13th September 2012

With less than three weeks until the flashmob, Reproductive Choice Australia is expecting a crowd! Already, more than 150 people have registered to dance in support of women and against abortion shame. Some will be attending rehearsal parties at the University of Melbourne on 18 & 24 September from 6-7pm. Others are learning the dance online. Come to the rehearsals to hear why people are dancing. Check out the moves here: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QzyRs1jcd9A&feature=plcp>

BE THERE on Sunday 30 September at 11am sharp to see over 150 Australian men and women materialise in Federation Square to dance in support of women and against abortion shame.

The "Let's End the Stigma" Flashmob is the official launch of Reproductive Choice Australia's NATIONAL Pledge Campaign to end abortion shaming. Timed to coincide with the International Campaign for the Decriminalisation of Abortion, the Melbourne "Let's End the Stigma" Flashmob is an Australian counter-attack in the shame wars.

Silence and shame are the fertile ground in which repressive abortion laws and policies flourish. There is much we can do to confine abortion stigma to history. Communities induce shame. Reproductive Choice Australia is asking the community to join us in stopping it.
