

CHANGE IN CARBON EMISSIONS VS. GDP

Among the top 20 economies, Canada stands alone for LOWERING its carbon emissions while GROWING its economy.

When comparing GDP growth and emissions reductions, you can see Canadian leadership. For most countries, GDP growth is synonymous with emissions growth. This is not true for Canada. Clean energy and natural gas have enabled this combination of high economic growth and falling emissions.

SOURCES: World Bank GDP data, U.S. Energy Information Administration Emissions Data.

