

Do I need to make my research open? Was my research funded by....

Other?

NSERC?

SSHRC?

CIHR?

My funding was secured:

My funding was secured:

before
May 1 2015

after May 1 2015

before Jan 1 2008

after Jan 1 2008

Check with your funding agency, but chances are you do not have to make your research open.

You must make your publication openly available. You can do this by publishing in an Open Access journal (Gold OA), or by depositing the pre-print in an institutional repository (Green OA).

However, we encourage you to do so, so that more academics, students, and members of the public can read your work.