

WRITE IN RITA ROSS

for 5th District
Michigan State Representative

Rita Ross is a native of Detroit, a parent of two and a foster parent of many. She has long been a foot soldier for the citizens of Detroit. Rita has broken barriers as one of the first African American Stewardess to “Fly the Friendly Skies” of Pan America International Airlines. She is rooted in the Motown Family which created a sound that is uniquely and forever Detroit.

Ms. Ross is, and has been, a devoted community leader, serving on the Michigan State Supreme Court Foster Care Review Board, Detroit Historical Commission, Board of Zoning Appeal, The Dexter Elmhurst Community Center Board and Care First Mental Health Services.

Ms. Ross is ready to take her experiences to Lansing as your next district 5 State Representative.

Ms. Ross is proud to stand for:

- Drivers choice to guarantee auto insurance rate cuts
- Expanding Early Childhood Education and competitive Public Schools
- Improved access to mental health services
- Increased Job training and apprenticeships opportunities for all Detroiters
- Expanding mass transit and fixing up our roads
