vi. To develop a membership base to assist in accomplishing the foregoing purposes; and

vii. To undertake any other lawful purpose. In pursuing this purpose, the Corporation shall operate exclusively for educational, scientific and charitable purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as the same may be amended, supplemented or superseded from time to time.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP, VOTING RIGHTS AND DUES

Section 1: Membership

The membership of the Corporation shall be composed of former Peace Corps volunteers, present and former Peace Corps staff, spouses and families of returned volunteers and staff, and (unless the Board of Directors shall otherwise determine) other persons and entities interested in the Peace Corps, in each case paying membership dues in accordance with the membership dues structure established from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2: Voting Rights

Each member shall be entitled to vote, but solely with respect to;

- (i) the election of Directors (other than an honorary Director) and
- (ii) any other matters specifically designated for membership vote by the Board or Directors in its sole discretion, it being expressly understood that any such vote may be conducted by mail and as otherwise provided for in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

Section 3: Dues

Membership dues will be recommended by the Membership Chair and fixed by the Board of Directors. It is expressly understood that the dues may, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, include dues to an organization with which the Corporation affiliates as permitted by clause (v) of Section 4, Article I hereof.

Section 4: Delinquent Payment

Any member in default of dues for 30 days after said dues are payable may be suspended from all privileges of membership.

Section 5: Membership Termination

Any member may be expelled from membership by a vote of two-thirds of the voting Directors then in office, upon a determination by such Directors that the member has engaged in inappropriate action which it can reasonably be foreseen will injure the Corporation, provided such member shall have first been given written notice and shall have the opportunity to be heard at the meeting.

Section 6: Membership Withdrawal

Any member wishing to withdraw from this Corporation may do so by submitting a resignation to the Membership Chair.

Section 7: Member Interest in Corporation

Title to the funds and properties of the Corporation shall at all times remain vested in the Corporation and no member shall have or acquire any interest therein. Dues are not refundable.

ARTICLE III – MEETINGS OF THE MEMBERS

Section 1: Annual Meeting

The Corporation shall hold not less than one meeting (the “Annual Meeting”) per year. Failure to hold the Annual Meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the Corporation.

Section 2: Annual Meeting Purpose, Date, Notice

The Annual Meeting shall be held in September (or at such other time as may be designated by the Board of Directors) for the purpose of electing Directors (other than honorary Directors) and for the discussion of such other business as may be brought before the meeting. The date and place shall be determined by the Board of Directors, and notice thereof may appear in a newsletter, letter, or other mailing sent to all members not less than 10 nor more than 90 days before the date of the meeting. Such notice shall invite members to make any suggestions they may have regarding the agenda but only the Board of Directors may set the agenda.

Section 3: Special Meetings

Special Meetings of the members may be called only by the Board of Directors or by a petition signed by one-tenth of the members and delivered to the secretary of the Corporation. Such meeting shall be held at such place and at such hour as may be set forth in the notice of such meeting.

Section 4: Special Meeting Notice

Notice of any Special Meeting of the members shall be given to each member and may appear in a newsletter, letter, or similar mailing sent to all members not less than 10 nor more than 90 days before the date of such meeting. Notice of a Special Meeting shall state the object of the meeting and shall invite members to make any suggestions they may have regarding the agenda but only the Board of Directors may set the agenda.

Section 5: Member Quorum, Voting

At any meeting of the members the presence, in person or by proxy, of one twentieth of the members of the Corporation shall constitute a quorum for all purposes. For all purposes herein, in any case where a vote is conducted by mail a member who has cast his or her vote by mail shall be deemed to be present by proxy. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting, the meeting may be adjourned from time to time, by the vote of the majority of the members present in person at such meeting, without notice (except such notice as required by law), until a sufficient number of members requisite to constitute a quorum shall be present in person or by proxy. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Corporation and shall be sufficient for the adoption of any resolution, except as may be otherwise provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

Section 6: Meeting Chair

The President, or in his or her absence the Vice President, or in the absence of the Vice President such person as may be chosen by the Board of Directors shall preside at and chair the meeting. The Secretary or, in his or her absence, a designate, as indicated by the person chairing the meeting, shall act as the secretary of each meeting.

Section 7: Conferred Voting Rights

Nothing contained in these Bylaws shall be deemed to confer upon the members any right to vote upon any matter other than the election of voting Directors and any other matter specifically designated by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion. Any meeting, whether Annual or Special, may serve as a forum through which the Board of Directors can consult with, and seek advice of, the members on issues of interest to the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: Board of Directors

The Business and affairs of the Corporation shall be governed by the Board of Directors. All Directors (other than honorary Directors) shall be members of the Corporation.

Section 2: Honorary Directors

Not more than three honorary Directors may be elected by the Board of Directors to serve a one year term. Such honorary Directors may be members and shall have the full right to attend, and to participate in the discussions held at, any meeting of the Board of Directors. No honorary Director shall have the right to vote at any such meeting.

Section 3: Number of Directors, Time in Office

The number of Directors of the Corporation (other than honorary Directors) shall be set by resolution of the Board of Directors but shall not be less than three nor more than twenty. Each Director (other than honorary Directors) shall serve for a term of one year and shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting or until his or her successor is elected or appointed and duly qualified.

Section 4: Board Vacancies, Filling by Vote

Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, and any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of Directors or resignation of a Director, may be filled by a vote of the majority of the Voting Directors then in office, even if they constitute less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director. Any Director so elected shall have full voting rights and shall be elected to serve until the next Annual Meeting or until his successor is elected or appointed and duly qualified.

Section 5: Regular Board of Director Meetings, Notice Requirement

Regular Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held not less frequently than every two months. Five days' notice of Regular Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be required. Such notice may be given in a written (including by resolution of the Board of Directors) or oral form. Regular Meetings shall be held at such place and time as designated in the notice of the Regular Meeting. The attendance of a Director at any Regular Meeting of the Board of Directors shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting. Meetings of the Board of Directors and of the members may be held jointly.

Section 6: Special Board of Director Meetings, Notice Requirement

Special Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held whenever called by direction of the President or by a majority of the voting Directors then in office. The Secretary shall give at least one days' written or oral notice of such Special Meeting. Unless otherwise required by law or by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, the notice of any Special Meeting of the Board of Directors need not specify any purpose of such meeting, and, unless otherwise indicated in the notice thereof, any and all business may be transacted at a Special Meeting. The attendance of a Director at a Special Meeting of the Board of Directors shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 7: Board Meetings, Quorum, Voting

At all meetings of the Board of Directors a majority of the total number of voting Directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but if at any meeting of the Board there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present. The affirmative vote of a majority of the voting Directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors and shall be sufficient for the adoption of any resolution, except as may be otherwise provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. The Chairperson of the meeting shall vote with all other Voting Directors and shall not be limited to voting in cases of an equal division of the other Directors. Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these By-laws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if written consent thereto is signed by all voting members of the Board or of such committee, as the case may be, and such consent is filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board or such committee. From time to time, an Executive Session may be called whereby the taking of minutes is suspended and unelected participants may be asked to excuse themselves subject to the discretion of the Chairperson. Referring an item of business to Executive Session may be proposed by any voting Director at any meeting of the Board of Directors and requires unanimous consent to be in order. The executive session may be held at the end of the meeting following regular business, and a general description of what was discussed shall be entered into the official minutes.

Section 8: Board of Directors Compensation

The Board of Directors shall not be paid by the Corporation for expenses incurred in conjunction with attendance at any meeting of the Board.

Section 9: Cause and Removal of Board Members

Any Director may be removed from office, with cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting Directors then in office. The failure of a voting Director to attend two consecutive Board meetings without reasonable justification may be considered cause for removal, at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
