WORKSHOP & PANEL DESCRIPTIONS

Diversity in Politics: Panel Discussion
Moderated by Maria Aman and featuring panelists Jack Saddleback, Kishore Gali and Jean Chen who will be answering questions about the issues facing diverse communities, offering their opinion on how to engage with diverse communities and identifying some of the barriers that members of diverse communities face that prevents them from becoming involved with politics or political parties.

Workshops

Effective Digital Activism
Facilitator: Aidan Murphy (2017 & 2018 Sask NDP Summer Organizer)
The inside scoop on how to be a successful digital citizen, activist, and participant. We will be looking at strategies and techniques that the Saskatchewan NDP has been using to innovate its digital game and explain how we plan to turn actual grassroots organizing in to wins through new and online means. From our digital share team, to new apps for canvassing, and including all that you need to know about our social media innovations, this is the explainer you need to stay on the cutting edge of digital activism within the NDP.
Location: Gallery D  Times: Saturday, October 13 at 9:00am and 1:30pm

Integrated to Win
Facilitator: Josh Bizjak, Broadbent Institute
The "How-To" on building your integrated local campaign using all of the tools, skills and talents available to you for best results on a modern campaign budget. We’ll look at how Fundraising, Communications, Organizing, Voter ID, and GOTV all need to work together, and where old school wisdom meets with digital tech for greatest impact. Modern integrated campaigns are winning all over the country - so can you!
Location: Centennial AB  Times: Saturday, October 13 at 9:00am and 1:30pm

Identifying Policy Strengths and Gaps
Facilitators: Saskatchewan NDP Policy Committee
An interactive session on the party’s resolutions manual and talking about the strengths in our party’s existing policies and identifying areas for improvement.
Location: Centennial C  Times: Saturday, October 13 at 9:00am and 1:30pm

Treasurer Training
Facilitators: Tim Hutchison, Treasurer for Saskatoon Nutana
A walk through of the responsibilities and best practices for Saskatchewan NDP constituency treasurers.
Location: Salon E  Times: Saturday, October 13 at 9:00am and 1:30pm
GUEST SPEAKERS

Shannon Phillips - Minister of Environment and Parks and the Alberta Climate Change Office in Rachel Notley's Alberta NDP Government

Shannon Phillips was elected on May 5, 2015 to represent the southern Alberta riding of Lethbridge-West. She is the Minister of Environment and Parks and the Alberta Climate Change Office. Previously, she also served as the Minister for the Status of Women.

Since taking office, Ms. Phillips has led the government’s Climate Leadership Plan which is designed to diversify the economy, create new jobs and improve Alberta’s health.

Prior to being elected, Shannon worked with the Alberta Federation of Labour, as a policy analyst for five years. She was also a member of the board of directors, for five years, for the Womanspace Resource Centre, a non-profit organization that provides referrals, resources and education to the community and to individual women.

Raised in Edmonton, Ms. Phillips graduated with honours from the University of Alberta with a Master of Arts Degree in political science. She lives in Lethbridge with her two sons.

Linda Silas - President of the Canadian Federation of Nurses Unions

A 5-foot feminist dynamo with a soft heart and strong stomach who is passionate about making a difference in people’s lives.

Linda Silas has been the President of the 200,000-strong Canadian Federation of Nurses Unions (CFNU) since 2003. As the dynamic and charismatic leader of Canada’s largest nurses’ organization, Linda is recognized as the foremost advocate on behalf of nurses in Canada.

Linda champions greater understanding and action on social justice, the social determinants of health and key policies that will enhance socio-economic equity, such as retirement security for all workers, a national pharmacare program, universal child care and greater access to public services for Indigenous communities.

Linda was previously the President of the New Brunswick Nurses Union (NBNU) for 10 years. Linda is a graduate of l’Université de Moncton, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and has practiced in in ICU, emergency, and labour & delivery.

Josh Bizjak - Director of Development, Broadbent Institute

Josh has managed fundraising programs for campaigns at every level of politics and seen his candidates elected and debt free. Josh prides himself on his outreach a wide array of stakeholders to assist in the advancement of a progressive agenda.

Outside of politics Josh is well-regarded fundraising consultant in the NGO sector specializing in capacity building, integrated systems, and revenue diversification.

Josh will be sharing an analysis of the Canadian Political Landscape post Stephen Harper and what it takes for progressives to win in Saskatchewan. Who are the players? What are influences? How do we get voters to pay attention? Progressives can beat conservative campaigns at their own game if we get organized and follow a few basic strategic rules of engagement.
Jared Clarke - Teacher and Climate Change Educator

Jared Clarke is a teacher, biologist, radio host and dad. Born and raised in Regina, SK, Jared currently resides on a farm near Edenwold, SK with his wife Kristen and 6-year old twin girls, Rowan & Teal.

Jared is a passionate advocate for tackling climate change in the province, particularly after participating in the Climate Reality Leadership Training Corps in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in October 2017. He has taken his message of concern and hope to numerous rural Saskatchewan communities close to his home, as well as urban centres.

Jared also hosts The Prairie Naturalist on 91.3 FM CJTR, sharing his passion for wildlife and the outdoors with listeners weekly since February, 2016 and has recorded over 115 episodes. In May, 2018 Jared was selected as a CBC Future 40 Recipient in the community, social activism and volunteerism category.

Trish Hennessy - Incoming Executive Director for Upstream

Trish Hennessy is the incoming executive director of Upstream. She was the founding director of the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives’ (CCPA) Ontario office, which opened in 2012. She co-founded and directed the CCPA’s national project examining income inequality in Canada, which began in 2006. She also co-founded the Ontario Living Wage Network and she sits on their steering committee. Trish is a former newspaper journalist.

She has a B.A. Sociology from Queen's University, B.S.W. from Carleton University, and M.A. in Sociology from OISE/University of Toronto.
