

SYP Awards 2019

The Ros Clark Support Worker of the Year

The Support Worker of the Year Award has been named in memory of former Support Worker, Ros Clark, who exemplified all the qualities this award recognises. The Ros Clark Support Worker of the Year award is presented to the Support Worker who has gone the extra mile to help individual or collective groups of MSYPs achieve all that they can at SYP.

Any Support Worker or Youth Worker who regularly works with MSYPs and is employed by a Local Authority or a National Voluntary Organisation can be nominated for this award.

The Ros Clark Support Worker of the Year - Nomination criteria:

- What has the Support Worker done to go the extra mile to help MSYPs?
- How has the Support Worker helped MSYPs to participate in the Scottish Youth Parliament?
- What is it about the Support Worker that makes them outstanding and inspirational?

You can submit a nomination for this category, or any other category, here.
