

Evaluation: Red (Does not Support Conservative Values)

Responded:

1. Should elected leadership involve local Charitable Non-Profits in issues relating to Social issues?(Homeless and Street individuals) Absolutely, there are many organizations that are already involved with this issue. Further, working in collaboration with them enhances our chances of obtaining grants and funding from various state and federal agencies.
2. To what level should elected leadership be concerned with individual property rights? We should be respectful abide and abide by the legal rights of property owners.
3. How can government strengthen the local economy? By not increasing taxes, and providing an infrastructure that would encourage businesses, small and large, to locate here as well as keeping our current businesses operational.
4. Which is best, government controls or free markets, and why? Free markets that encourage people to start their own business, as well as relocate business to locate here in the Spokane Valley.
5. When should government be involved in Social engineering? When it affects public safety and welfare of the residents of the Valley, and in support of our schools, park system, police and fire departments.
6. How can government strengthen Families? Government can strengthen families by providing a safe environment with our public safety and healthy life styles and an economy that encourages family wage jobs.
7. Who is responsible for the child, the parents or the state? Why? The parents are unless the living conditions are deemed unsafe for the child.
8. Explain you understanding of the following, regarding the US Constitution, should it be understood by “Original Intent” and/or as a “Living Document”? As a living document, the constitution can be amended by the will of the people.
9. Have you read Washington State Constitution, and do you agree to support this document entirely? I taught Washington State history for 20 years, and am very familiar with it and support it. I have not read it word for word.