

Meeting Notes SEA Site Representative Meeting

February 20, 2018

What to share with members at this month's 10 minutes meeting:

1. Bargaining Update - The SEA team is working hard to find ways to make family benefits to be more economical. A CTA specialist presented ideas to SEA and SCGA to consider in order to get the cost of benefits down for families without penalizing singles and single +1. The team had three open hearings in January and February including a special meeting during the Adult School PLC.
2. PAC Update – A meeting on March 5, 2018 at 4:00 – 5:30 will be for interviews with the candidates SEA has endorsed. If any members would like to attend please contact Gene Chavira chavira@cox.net.
3. Health/Benefits – Optum Employee Assistance Program; liveandworkwell.com access code: veba for members and their dependents who need assistance. Also, members have assistance through the EASE program mhn.advantageengagement.com Company code: ease.
Both groups provide training and help with all sorts of service including Life and Work, Mind and Body, Financial and Legal, and Crisis support. They are coverage throughout benefits. Encourage members who are experiencing difficulty to utilize this benefit.
4. SEA Elections – Please make sure to hold the local NEA-RA elections and bring the ballots to the office March 13, 2018 by 5:00 p.m. Be sure to get member signatures and make sure the ballots equal the signatures. If there is a person who is not on your list, please put their ballot in an envelope and have them sign the back.
5. SEA Scholarships – The forms and instructions will be posted on the website (seacta.org) under Member Resources by March 1st.
6. Announcements –
 - a. Social Justice Symposium hosted by SCTU – March 3rd at Rancho del Rey. More information will be posted on the website. You must RSVP to attend. Encourage students, members and community members to attend.
 - b. San Diego Service Center Social Mixer & Dinner Cruise on Tuesday, April 10th from 7:00 pm to 9:30 pm. More information will be posted in Member Resources on the website as well as a link to RSVP.
 - c. San Diego CTA Educator Social Justice Night at the Gulls – Tuesday, March 13th at 7 pm. $15 per member, $30 for guests, email sdctahuman@gmail.com to buy tickets. There are 25 free member tickets, contact Jasper Daleo at seer45@gmail.com. A copy of the flier will be posted on the seacta.org website in the member resources.