

Media Advisory: Saskatoon Health Care Providers are #DoneWaiting

Saskatoon – SEIU-West members will be demonstrating outside of Saskatoon City Hospital and West Winds Primary Health Care Centre on September 9, 2020 to show their continued frustration with the pace of SAHO bargaining and the Saskatchewan government’s refusal to negotiate a fair deal.

“It’s far past time that our government do the right thing,” says Barbara Cape, President of SEIU-West. “Our members are worth investing in for the future of our provincial health care system.”
