

Soaring Spirits San Diego Dash

San Diego, California

July 26, 2015

The Widow Dash 5K is about moving forward, one step at a time. We believe that physical activity is a powerful step in the process of moving forward in every area of life. This series of runs was created to honor the can-do spirit of men and women who have faced immense life challenges, and have found their own unique way to keep moving in a positive, forward direction. Proceeds of this event benefit Soaring Spirits International, a non-profit organization that creates, and maintains, innovative peer support programs for widowed people around the world.

Join us for an inspiring day filled with hope...laced up in running shoes!
