

Kelly Thorarinson is a local clinical social worker in private practice. She is also trained in expressive arts therapy. Kelly was widowed in 2009 and has been offering support to the widow community for the past 5 years.