

THE FRANCES LANKIN AWARD

The Frances Lankin Award was established in 2011 by Social Planning Toronto on the occasion of Frances Lankin's retirement from United Way Toronto. It is awarded to two individuals who have made a significant, transformative contribution to the non-profit community service sector in Toronto. The Award recognizes one recipient for a Lifetime Achievement Award, and one for an Inspiring Leadership Award.

THE SELECTION PROCESS

Nominations for the awards can be made by any individual or organizational member of Social Planning Toronto. Nominations can be made by way of a letter, email, or fax using the attached nomination form and criteria.

THE TIMELINE FOR THE PROCESS

For 2020, nominations will open on February 20, with a March 31 deadline for receipt of nominations. The awards will be presented at SPT's Annual General Meeting (date TBA).

For more information, or to submit a nomination, contact Maria Serrano, Director of Operations at Social Planning Toronto.

NOMINATIONS CRITERIA

The 2020 Frances Lankin Community Service Award will be presented to two individuals who have made a significant, transformative contribution to the non-profit community service sector in Toronto. The Award will recognize one recipient for a Lifetime Achievement Award, and one for an Inspiring Leadership Award.

SIGNIFICANT, TRANSFORMATIVE CONTRIBUTION

- Individuals have demonstrated instrumental actions in bringing significant change to the non-profit sector — for example, innovative approaches to connecting and building networks, altering models of service delivery, and advocating sustained development to communities.
- Contributions may include development in: research, education, professional development, service delivery, planning and administration, leadership, social recreation, arts, or any other area of significant sector activity. These results may be reflected in advocacy, social policy, and/or community building.

AWARD CATEGORIES

- Lifetime Achievement Award: Recognizes an outstanding individual who has consistently provided a high level of contributions over a continued period (10–20 years). Individual has energy and drive, demonstrating resilience to overcome obstacles. Actions have produced a lasting legacy in developing the non-profit sector.
- Inspiring Leadership Award: Recognizes a rising innovator (18–40 years of age) whose actions have inspired change through outstanding leadership, collaboration, resource development, and knowledge growth.

SELECTION PROCESS

Nominations for the Awards can be made by any individual or organizational member of Social Planning Toronto. Nominations can be made by mail, email, or fax using the attached nomination form and criteria. Deadline for nominations is Tuesday, March 31, 2020.
