

Women In the Divided City: Gender Equity and the 2017 Budget

By Leila Sarangi, Women's Habitat

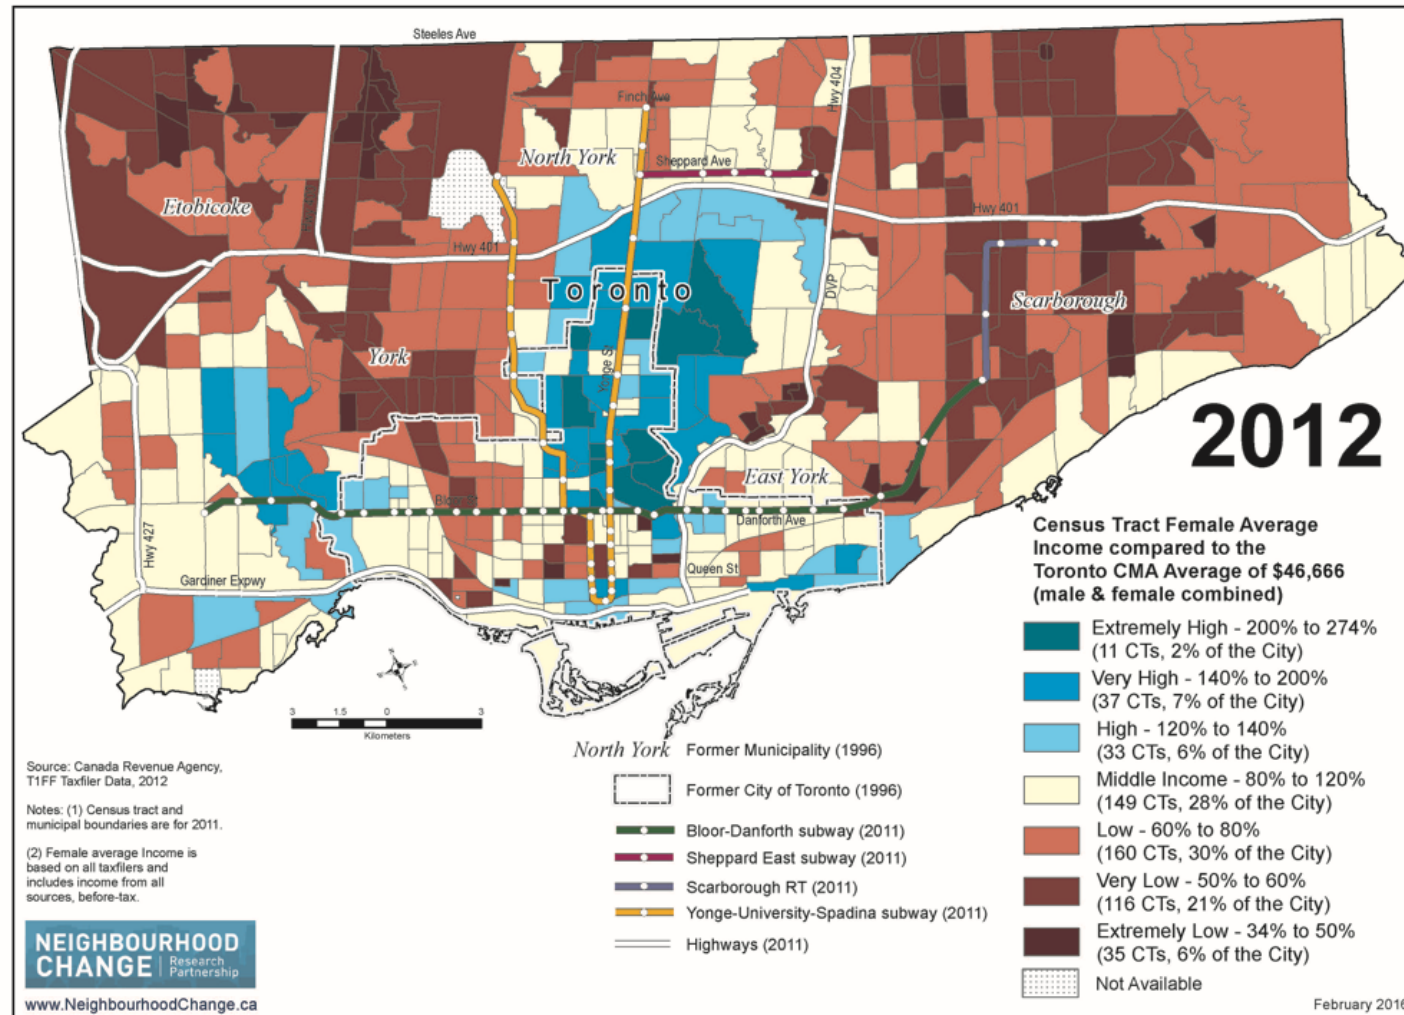

Emily Paradis, Neighbourhood Change Research Partnership

Effie Vlachoyannacos

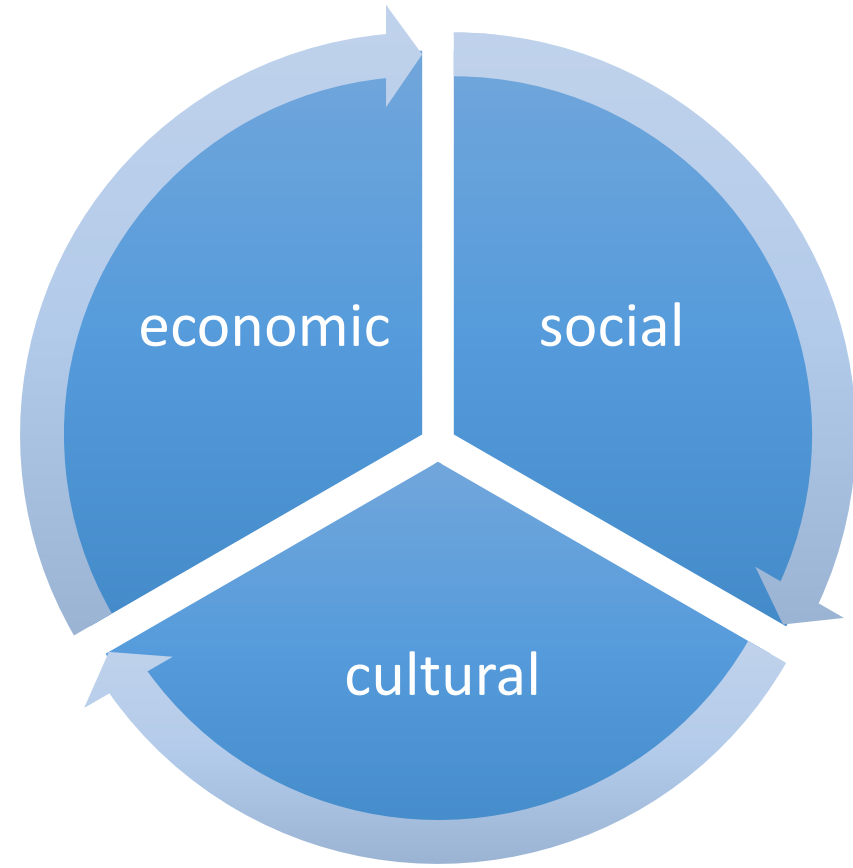

Women's Incomes in Toronto

Female Average Income, City of Toronto, 2012

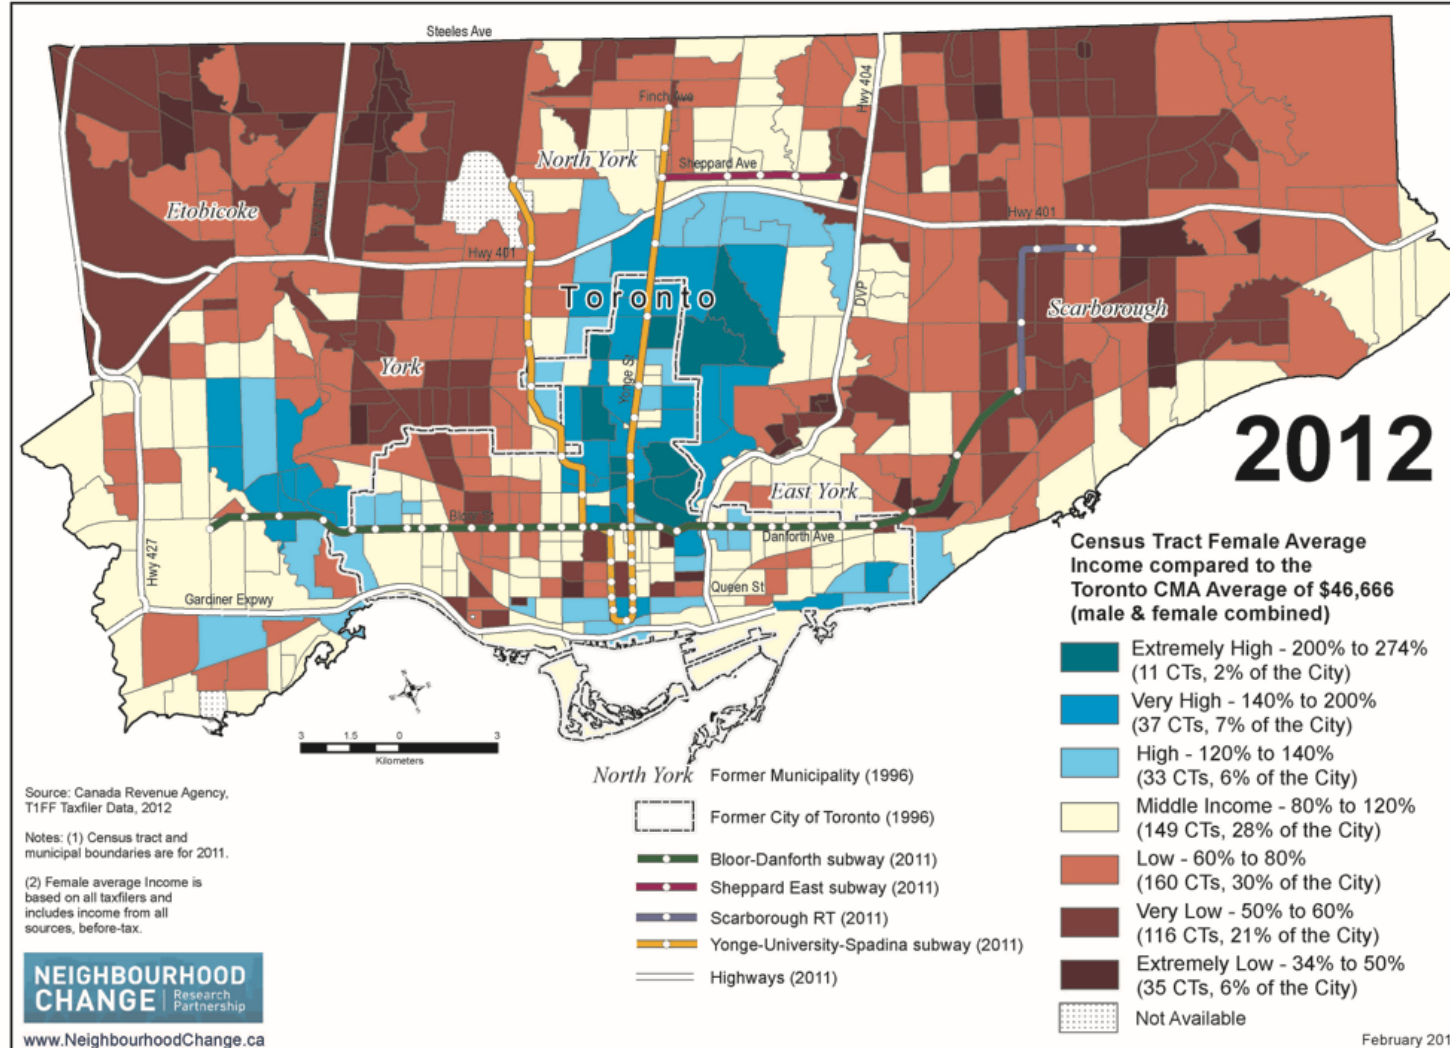

What is a Gender Equity Lens?

- Acknowledges, analyses underlying root causes of disparities that different groups of people face
- Redress remedy disparities
 - fair taxation
 - allocation of public resources
- Process of data collection and engagement

How a Gender Equity Lens Works

Female Average Income, City of Toronto, 2012

Benefits of Gender Equity

Fairer City for everyone
Highlight where City may be falling short on equality for all
Women are half of Toronto's population – when they face systemic disadvantage, prosperity of the whole City suffers

Asks for the City

