

Strong Finish/Quick Start

What's the best thing that's happened in your business this year?

How and why did it come about? (Success leaves clues)

What's the biggest lesson you've learned this year?

How will you apply it going forward?

What outcome would you like between now and December 31st? Be specific.

Why this outcome? ("Why" is your motivation)

What are the next few steps you can take towards achieving this outcome? When?

What can you do between now and the end of the year to ensure a quick start to 2015?

What are you doing regularly to get better at your craft?

What one skill, if further developed, would have a major impact on your business for 2015 and beyond?

What's your plan to develop it?