STEF MENDELL, CITY COUNCIL CANDIDATE, RECEIVES ENDORSEMENT OF THE TRIANGLE LABOR COUNCIL OF THE NORTH CAROLINA AFL-CIO

Raleigh – Stef Mendell, Candidate for Raleigh City Council, District E, is proud to announce that she has received the endorsement of the Triangle NC AFL-CIO. “We are very pleased to advise that you are our endorsed candidate for Raleigh City Council District E,” said Michael Gravinese, President, Triangle Labor Council AFL-CIO. “We enjoyed chatting with you and we were impressed by your commitment and knowledge,” Gravinese added.

“I am honored to receive this endorsement from the AFL-CIO,” Mendell said. “I intend to advocate for economic development that provides good jobs, safe workplaces and quality public services on behalf of ALL working people,” she added.

Stef Mendell has lived in Raleigh since 1964. She is an activist in local government. She regularly attends City Council and Planning Commission meetings to advocate for and testify about the protection of our neighborhoods from incompatible development, storm water runoff, and other related challenges to our quality of life. While she welcomes progress, innovation, and smart growth, Mendell believes that growth comes with responsibilities. Mendell sees the need to improve citizen engagement while strengthening the role of the Citizens Advisory Councils (CACs).
