

IAGOP | STORY COUNTY

August 3, 2020

The Republican Party of Story County Convention will reconvene on Monday, August 17 at 7:00 PM at the Harrington Park Shelter in Nevada, weather permitting. You may find any weather updates on the webpage, www.storycountygop.com/special_nominating_convention_2020.

This special reconvening of the Story County Convention will conduct the following business:

1. Select a nominee for State Representative – District 45
2. Select a nominee for State Representative – District 46
3. Select a nominee for a vacancy on the Story County Board of Supervisors
4. Select a nominee for Story County Auditor
5. Select a nominee for Story County Sheriff
6. Select a nominee for the vacancy of the Story County Attorney

Please note the following important items:

It is important that we have a quorum for this convention to ensure that we have a full slate of Republican candidates for the ballot in November.

Registration for the county convention will open at 6:00 pm. Registration will close at 6:45 pm so that alternates may be seated as necessary and the convention may begin promptly at 7:00 pm.

Republican Party of Story County Convention – Special Nominating Convention
Monday, August 17, 2020 at 7:00 pm
Harrington Park Shelter
15th & Lincoln Highway
Nevada, IA

The convention will be called to order by Brett Barker, who will serve as convention chair. Deborah Stoner of the Republican Party of Story County Central Committee will serve as convention secretary. The rules as approved at the previous session of the County Convention will apply for the reconvened special nominating convention.

Additionally, we will conduct our regular monthly Story County Central Committee meeting immediately after the convention adjourns. There are vacancies in several precincts, and we are looking to build a strong team to carry our local candidates to victory in November. I hope that you will consider joining our Story County GOP team as we build for victory.

Sincerely,

Brett Barker, Chairman
Republican Party of Story County
