- Side yard sales – Eligible homeowners are able to purchase vacant properties next to their homes.
- Non-profit sales – Eligible non-profits are able to purchase vacant property for uses that benefit the community.
- For-profit sales – Eligible for-profits are able to purchase vacant land for uses that promote economic development.
- Leasing – In 2015 the Cuyahoga Land Bank began offering leasing options for urban agriculture purposes. Successful applicants must have a proven track record, documented support and the resources to create and sustain a successful project.

Eligibility Requirements

Purchase and Lease Process
The process for purchasing and leasing properties depends on the goal of the project and is considered on a case by case basis.

Typically the Following Requirements Apply:
- The applicant cannot be tax delinquent on any property they own
- The applicant cannot have outstanding housing code violations on any property they own
- The applicant cannot have lost a property to tax foreclosure in the past
- The applicant must be able to make and sustain improvements to the lot
- The Council person and/or other community development partners in the area must be in support of the property

The Key – Identify potential sites and work closely WITH the County Land Bank to gain access!

Do’s and Don’t’s

Do:
• Remember that Cleveland is a National Leader in Urban Gardening!
• Remember the bureaucracy is slow, but the people and system are on your side!
• Consider the benefits of leasing or licensing property as opposed to purchasing property
• Do consider other land such as schools, churches and backyards
• Consider the zoning restrictions that may hinder or promote your ability to make improvements (hoop houses, water, sheds, compost, etc.)
• Call CCLRC (Jason Knauer) if you discover privately held, tax delinquent parcels ideal for growing
• Bring us your ideas!

Don’t:
• Buy or accept “donations” of property from private owners without ordering a title search from a reputable title company.
• Get “lost in maps and lists”. Determine the general area you would like to operate in then identify a site.
