Day 2 Sustainable Cleveland Summit - Thursday, Oct 21st

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM EST

Air Quality in Cleveland: A Panel Discussion

Gain a better understanding of Cleveland's "airshed" and compare data to EPA to identify areas of environmental justice needs.

Presenters:

- Christina Yoka, Chief of Air Pollution Outreach, Cleveland Department of Public Health
- Divya Sridhar, Manager of Climate Resiliency & Sustainability, Cleveland Neighborhood Progress
- Whitnye Long Jones, Director of Community Engagement, Ohio City, Inc.

Detailed Description:

"Air quality may mean different things to different people within a city or neighborhood. Factors like where you live, your age, your race, your health, and your occupation can significantly impact what comes to mind when you think of air quality. In this panel discussion, you will hear different perspectives on air quality in Cleveland, and learn more about how local agencies and organizations are helping to monitor and improve the air we breathe."
