

2020 TACL P Conference Abstract Submission Guidelines:

- Presenters are limited to two abstract submissions, in total, per conference.
- TACL P uses a blind review process for the abstract reviews.
- Presenters and institutions must NOT be identified by name or description in the abstract, outline, or summary. Please do not use a specific program name that is attributed to your hospital (think of it like something that is 'trademarked' or 'copyrighted' to your program). You may use "this author," "this program," and "this hospital" in your submission to avoid disclosing yourself, your program, or your institution.
- If you, your institution, or program is named, your abstract will not be reviewed.
- Each abstract must be written in narrative form, meaning in the third person.
- Presenters shall not sell or promote any particular product or service at any time during the presentation.
- If your abstract submission does not follow the current submission guidelines, your submission may be eliminated from the review process.
- Presentations are limited to 2 presenters.
- Presenters will choose a one hour or one and half hour presentation or poster presentation format.

Submitting an Abstract

All abstracts are submitted through an online Google Forms document. You will need to be able to enter the information below into the online form. While it is possible to type your submission directly into the form, it is recommended that you gather all of the information listed below in a text document and cut and paste into the form.

Primary Presenter (will be the contact person)

This information will not be shared with reviewers until after presentations are selected
