

Nau mai, haere mai

Tu Tama Wahine o Taranaki Community Kōrero 2016

Tukaha Global Consultancy Ltd

Marcus Akuhata-Brown • Awakening a Generation

Marcus has a powerful message and creative delivery style that will explore lifting the glass lid of low expectation and achievement off whānau through positive encouragement, intuitive goal setting as well as igniting the courage to break out of comfort zones.

WHANAU HOUSE
62 POWDERHAM
STREET
NEW PLYMOUTH

DATE:
27 APRIL 2016

TIME: 10AM — 12PM

Marcus Akuhata-Brown grew up on the East Coast. His father is from Te Whanau o Tuwhakairiora of Te Araroa on the East Cape. His mother is a fifth generation New Zealander with European ancestry.

An experienced educator and gifted communicator, Marcus has led a number of innovative community development programmes around the world. In Aotearoa his work has focused on addressing the learning and developmental needs of youth, young offenders and their whānau.

From 1996-2004 Marcus travelled the globe as an international representative and delegate to multilateral meetings. He was elected to the Head the Commonwealth Youth Caucus for three years in addition to being appointed as a Director on the International Board of CIVICUS, an international alliance to strengthen citizen action and civil society.

REGISTRATION :

Registration is required.
All successful registrations will be followed up with confirmation of acceptance.

Workshop Fee:
$20 per person

Please contact:
reception @tutamawahine.org.nz

(06) 758 5795