

LGBTQ Youth Open Mic And Open Studio Night

Showcase your creative talents, support your peers, and hang out! You do not need to perform or display art to attend. This event is an opportunity to meet other LGBTQ people your age!
You may also join us at our monthly social groups:

Norwalk: Second Sunday of every month – 4:30PM – 6PM at 650 West Avenue

Bridgeport: Second Friday of every month – 6PM – 7PM at 753 Fairfield Avenue

Triangle Community Center

Who can perform or display art:

LGBTQ youth ages 13-25

Sign-ups for the open mic are first come, first serve. Performances will begin at 7:30PM. If you would like to bring you art to be displayed, email Katelyn@ctpridecenter.org or call 203-853-0600 ext 103.

Who can attend:

LGBTQ youth ages 13-25 and their friends and family.

What can you perform:

You can perform anything from reading your own pertinent works to works that you feel highlight LGBTQ experiences or accomplishments and important moments from the LGBTQ community. Dance. Poetry. Comedy. Lip-Sync. ET CETERA!

When:

Friday, May 26; 7PM – 9PM

Where:

650 West Avenue, Norwalk, CT 06850

TAKE NOTE: 650 West Avenue is Triangle Community Center's new drop-in space across the street in between Dunkin Donuts and H&R Block.

Contact:

If you have any questions, concerns, or would like to request additional arrangements, you may reach out to Katelyn, TCC Program Coordinator at Katelyn@CTPrideCenter.org.