

Part-Timers & Inside Workers Are Voting EXPERIENCE MATTERS

BAs Who Stand Up to Management”

“Our Business Agent has no idea how to stand up to UPS. Stewards and members are hung out to dry. I’m voting Experience Matters for Business Agents who stand up to supervisors and have your back.”

Lincoln McKenzie, Foster

We Need to Clean House

“I’ve seen Vinnie Perrone, Chris Williamson and Experience Matters in action. They command management’s respect. What we have now is a joke. We need to clean house and elect a slate we can believe in from top to bottom. That’s Experience Matters.”

Federico Ramirez, Maspeth

Protecting Seniority

“We want our seniority protected so that we get the start times we deserve. Right now, no one is making UPS follow the contract.”

Dawn Bobb-Semple, 43rd Street

Make UPS Pay for Supervisors Working

“When supervisors work, they are taking our overtime. That’s money out of our pockets. Experience Matters knows how to win supervisors working grievances and make management pay when they violate the contract.”

Adam Thomas, 43rd Street

Stop the Divisions

“Our local is very divided and it’s hurting the members. Experience Matters is the best choice to unite our local and move us forward.”

Horiol Charles, Nassau

I’m Sick of Empty Campaign Promises

“Anyone can make campaign promises. But when it comes to UPS, action talks and BS walks. It’s been three years of harassment, givebacks and weak representation. This is the worst it’s been in all my years in this local. I’m voting for the one and only slate with the experience to turn this around.”

Bill Groll, Maspeth

I Won’t Be Fooled Again

“I was fooled three years ago. I’m not getting fooled again. I’m voting Experience Matters.”

Amy Goldstein, Suffolk

Vote Row D to Elect the Experience Matters Slate

Ballots Mail on November 28 • www.ExperienceMattersSlate.com