Take Home

Dear Parents,

This week we discussed how abortion came to be legal during all nine months of pregnancy. We discussed how electing pro-life politicians is very important in changing laws which permit abortion, and we compared the similarities in the arguments in favor of slavery and the arguments that led to the legalization of abortion. Take a few minutes and let your child tell you about those arguments using the chart below.

Please read the brochure, Sing A Little Louder, and consider discussing it with your child. Finally we would ask you and your child to choose a place in your home to display the piece of literature, She Can Make a Tiny Fist, where it can remind you to pray daily for an end to abortion. Prayer is powerful; because of prayer, some abortionists have stopped doing abortions, some women have chosen life, an abortion clinic in Chattanooga has been closed and is now a Memorial for the Unborn where people can mourn the loss of their aborted children. (Please see brochure for more about this miraculous story).

Deadly Arguments

The Dred Scot 1857 7-2 Supreme Court Decision	Roe v. Wade 1973 7-2 Supreme Court Decision
Black = Non-person	Unborn = Non-person
Property of Owner	Property of mother
Owner can choose to buy, sell or kill.	Owner can choose to keep or kill.
“Abolitionists should not impose morality on slave owner.”	“Pro-lifers should not impose morality on the mother.”
“If you are against slavery, don’t own one.”	“If you are against abortion, don’t have one.”
“Slavery is in the best interest of the slave since he can’t take care of himself.”	“Abortion is in the best interest of the baby who may not be cared for.”
Allows discrimination based on skin color.	Allows discrimination based on where the child lives.

The Supreme Court
was wrong then.

The Supreme Court
is wrong now

Man’s Laws may change, but God’s law never does!

Slavery was wrong then;
faithful people changed that law.

Abortion is wrong now;
faithful people can change
this law, too!
