YOU AND THE ARTS

Give us a sense about your relationship with the arts.

QUESTIONS: Is there an arts genre or form you particularly enjoy, and what is it? What arts and cultural events or performances have you attended in the last year? What arts organizations or commissions have you supported as a Board member, volunteer, contribution or season ticket holder. Please list cultural groups and experiences, even if not in Dallas.

I am a big fan of the arts. I have been most involved in the performing arts, and probably most engaged in the process to bring "Public Works" to Dallas in partnership with the Dallas Theater Center. I have attended numerous plays and shows at all of the Dallas venues. I had the opportunity to make cameo appearances in The Tempest, the Grinch, and Hairspray.

ADVOCACY

The role of an elected leader is in large part being a cheerleader for the City of Dallas and the things that make our city special. Dallas mayors such as Annette Strauss and Mike Rawlings, and former Councilmember Veletta Lill understood the importance of the arts to the city's economic development, tourism, vibrancy, cultural brand and quality of life. (See attached one-pager.) They made the arts a centerpiece of their agenda and legacy.

QUESTION: What role do you envision for yourself as an elected Dallas leader when it comes to the arts? Where will arts and culture fit within your priorities? And what are the ways you would advocate for the arts in and out of Dallas?

I want to be a leader and advocate for the arts in Dallas and specifically in opportunities for residents of my district. The Arts plays a key role in several of my efforts aligning with my ALLinD10 initiative. We are working on public art projects, involving local youth in the Dallas arts opportunities, and incorporating art components to bond projects such as our Forest Green Library and eco development projects.

EQUITY

The 2018 Dallas Cultural Plan – just approved unanimously by the City Council – placed Equity at the top of priorities for the arts. This includes equity in funding, providing cultural experiences in underserved parts of our city, supporting both the new and emerging arts community as well as our historic institutions. Additional resources will be required to reach this goal.

QUESTION: Given the many needs of the city, how will you support the goal of sustaining and growing the City’s current investment in the arts, and ensure the Cultural Plan does not gather dust on the shelf?

I helped advocate for the Cultural Arts plan, and before this I worked to ensure that the plan would be updated. I will not let this plan collect dust. We must give kids in all areas of our city as well as artists and those interested in the arts opportunities to experience the arts, learn from the arts, and participate in the arts.

HOTEL OCCUPANCY TAX

To help fund its implementation, the Cultural Plan calls for an increase in the arts portion of the City’s Hotel Occupancy Tax (HOT) to align with peer cities. HOT funds are paid by tourists, not Dallas taxpayers. Currently, 2.6% is dedicated to the arts (about $1.6M.) Houston is 19%, San Antonio is 11%, Austin is 15%.

QUESTION: Would you support a significant increase of the arts portion of the HOT to create and sustain a major cultural tourism marketing program, repairs and maintenance of neglected cultural venues, and increased support for arts programs that add to the cultural vibrancy and attractiveness of Dallas as a destination?

Yes.

ARTS IN YOUR DISTRICT

Name three areas of your council district where you think arts and cultural programs and experiences are most needed and would be welcomed the most.

Public art across the district.
A venue to host performing arts and conduct training especially for young aspiring artists.
Pop up performances and bringing events to the district.
